- TRANSITIONS

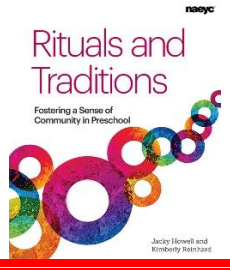

- Children are actively involved when transitioning. No long wait periods.

- Teach children the expectation during a transition. Use visuals to teach.

- Create a transition ritual/game for the most challenging transition of the day.

- Give at least a 5-minute whole class reminder BEFORE a transition happens, visually and verbally.

- Give individual reminder before transition to students who need it.....verbally/visually.

